Manitowoc, Wis., February 22, 2018 – Shoreline Credit Union is pleased to announce the appointment of Julie Vogel as a member of its Board of Directors. This change occurs as board member Maurice Jones announced his retirement from the board recently. The Board of Directors position is voluntary. In her role as a board member, Julie will help to provide leadership and financial oversight of the credit union's operations.

Julie is a full-time real estate broker with Aspire Real Estate Group, LLC in Manitowoc. During 2017, she was the number one real estate broker in closed transactions. She provides top-notch professional real estate services for buying and selling properties in the area. Julie regularly attends educational seminars, real estate conferences and networking activities to stay on top of today's changing real estate market.

She is a 1994 graduate of Roncalli High School and enjoys outdoor activities with her family.

Julie and her husband, Jeff also own and manage numerous rental properties in Manitowoc. She avidly works with families in the area to find the right home that fit their needs.
