SHORELINE HOMETOWN CREDIT UNION ANNOUNCES GLANDT HOMETOWN SCHOLARSHIP RECIPIENTS.

Attorney Travis Glandt recently presented three $500 Glandt Hometown Scholarships to outstanding Two Rivers High School students. The Glandt Hometown Scholarship is sponsored by Shoreline Hometown Credit Union to honor Travis Glandt's many years of service as a Shoreline Board Member.

Many Two Rivers High School students applied for the scholarships by filling out an application and sending it to the credit union. Applicants were judged for their grade point averages and how they positively impacted their school and community. Three Two Rivers High School students were chosen: Andrew Heller, Lauren Sosnosky, and Madelyn Polich.

Shoreline congratulates all three deserving students!

About Shoreline Hometown Credit Union

For over 75 years, Shoreline Hometown Credit Union is headquartered in Manitowoc County and is a member owned, non-profit financial cooperative serving approximately 8,000 members in nine counties — Brown, Outagamie, Winnebago, Door, Calumet, Fond du Lac, Kewaunee, Manitowoc and Sheboygan, in Wisconsin.
